

No image found type unknown

BI-Metallic dial thermometer – bdt100 horizontal

Sku : GE4028

www.geomatrixlabs.com

Product Image Gallery

www.geomatrixlabs.com

Description

This precision bimetal dial thermometers with bimetallic sensing elements are of rugged design and all metal construction for long life in harsh environments. Dial thermometer are ideal for installation in pipelines, containers, machines and plants and do not require any external power. Thermometers are tried and tested solution for local temperature measurement of fluids and gases in the industrial sector. Easy to read black scale on a white background on dial size 4" . It measures temperatures between -50 °C and 400 ° Centigrade.. With rigid back horizontal 600 mm stem length