No image found Image not found or type unknown

BI-Metallic dial Thermometer – BDT100 Vertical

Sku : GE4030

Description

This precision bimetal dial thermometers with bimetallic sensing elements are of rugged design and all metal construction for long life in harsh environments. Dial thermometer are ideal for installation in pipelines, containers, machines and plants and do not require any external power. Thermometers are tried and tested solution for local temperature measurement of fluids and gases in the industrial sector. Easy to read black scale on a white background dial size 4”. It measures temperatures between –50 °C and 400 ° Centigrade. . With rigid bottom Vertical 600 mm stem